Arbitrating the Mega-Case Surviving and Succeeding in the Mega- Arbitration

Friday, February 8, 2008
Millennium Biltmore Hotel Los Angeles,
Los Angeles, California.
Presented by the ABA Section of Dispute Resolution.

The Top Five Reasons to Attend:

- 1.) Become a Better Advocate for Your Client: With more and more complex cases going to arbitration, today's lawyer must understand the nuances of arbitration advocacy to be effective.
- 2.) Learn How to Manage the Most Complex and Challenging Arbitrations: From thoughtful preparation through the award you will learn successful strategies and techniques used by experienced lawyers and arbitrators to deal with large scale, high stakes arbitrations. You will also gain insights from arbitrators as they prepare and decide these complex cases.
- 3.) Learn the Latest Developments in Arbitration Practice: Cutting-edge topics such as E-discovery, out-of-jurisdiction issues, dealing with multiple-forum litigation, and testimony by video conference will be covered. Take your knowledge and skills to the next level with discussions on ethical issues, case preparation, managing experts, and preventing vacatur.
- 4.) Learn from Expert Faculty: Panels are comprised of experienced arbitrators and lawyer advocates who will examine the intricacies of complex arbitrations.
- 5.) Build Your Network: Multiple opportunities are provided for interaction with colleagues and faculty. Meet arbitrators and advocates who share your interest and expertise on this topic.
