Emerging Strategies for Managing Business & Workplace Conflict

LARRY RUTE

Larry is ADR's founding partner. He has successfully mediated more than 3,000 complex disputes. His mediation practice focuses on civil rights, commercial contract, constitutional law, employment discrimination, malpractice and complex multi-party class-collective actions. He serves as an arbitrator in behalf of the American Arbitration Association (AAA), National Arbitration Forum (NAF), FINRA Dispute Resolution. He is a Due Process Hearing Officer for the Kansas Department of Education. Larry teaches Alternative Dispute Resolution at Washburn School of Law.

PATRICK NICHOLS

Patrick is a full-time mediator and arbitrator. His mediation practice focuses on personal injury, employment and commercial transactions. He also mediates complex family matters, including high-conflict/high-asset divorce and child custody matters. He is listed in "The Best Lawyers in America" and is a certified civil trial advocate by the National Board of Trial Advocacy. He is a frequent presenter on topics in dispute resolution and has authored a series of articles on advocacy in mediation. Patrick has taught Division of Assets at Washburn School of Law and Workers' Compensation Law at the University of Kansas Law School.

MICHELLE MINOR

Michelle has developed a well-deserved reputation as a skilled mediator. She brings 25 years of corporate experience linked with a Masters of Arts in Conflict Management and Dispute Resolution. In addition to Michelle's many accomplishments as a successful mediator and arbitrator, Michelle demonstrates an unusual breadth of business-related experience. Her career in the corporate world has given her a unique perspective to provide assistance in planning, developing and instituting in-house dispute resolution systems.

ARTHUR CHAYKIN

Arthur is General Counsel for Shinn Fu Companies, the global leader in manufacturing and distribution of automotive lifting equipment, OEM hydraulics, and related accessories in the world. In his current role, Arthur is responsible for all legal affairs on a multi-national basis. Arthur's dispute resolution practice focuses on intellectual property disputes, business and commercial disputes, tort claims and products liability claims, partnership disputes and international business disputes. Arthur has been involved in alternative dispute resolution for over 25 years. He previously taught litigation, mediation and arbitration at various law schools, including Washburn. Formerly, he was head of Dispute Resolution for the Sprint Corporation.

C. DAVID NEWBERY, MBA, CPA, JD

Dave is uniquely qualified to mediate complex and technical cases involving trusts and estates, valuation, financial and tax issues, and closely held business interests. He has over 30 years experience in private practice in these areas and has been mediating these types of cases since 2001. Dave has served as court appointed Special Master for cases involving complex accounting, and financial issues. In addition to being a partner at the Topeka law firm of Newbery, Ungerer & Hickert, LLP, Dave is of counsel to Vold & Morris, LLC, a law firm with offices in Kansas City, Missouri and Leawood, Kansas. During the course of his career, he served as Kansas Director of Taxation and an Adjunct Professor at both the School of Business and the School of Law at Washburn University. He is a frequent speaker at seminars and workshops and has authored numerous publications.

JOHN R. PHILLIPS

John Phillips emphasizes commercial, employment and healthcare disputes nationally and in Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa. He is an Adjunct Instructor in ADR at Washburn Law School and is listed in Best Lawyers in America (both ADR and Employment), Chambers USA, and is a Fellow in the American College of Trial Lawyers and The College of Labor and Employment Lawyers. He has also been on the faculty at the ABA Mediation Institute and the ABA Arbitration Training Institute and has served as Chair of the Missouri Bar ADR Committee and KC MBA ADR Committee. His publications include the production of the training videos for the ABA, "Mediation Madness" and "Advanced Arbitration Insights: 20/20."
